The Big Lake Community Council has $30,690.00 from the State of Alaska and the Matsu Borough Revenue Sharing Program for the year 2023/24. The objective of this Grant Program is to use the funds to improve the quality of life for Big Lake residents and to enhance Big Lake's location as an ideal place to raise a family, run a business, recreate and retire. We accomplish this by offering small grants to numerous organizations for improving Big Lakes Residents; Health, Safety, Beautification, Education, Nutrition, Welfare, Quality of Life and Improving our Environment.

Grant application and awarding Time line is as follows:

June 30, 2023 — Applications emailed to: Terry Gorlick, terryg@ak.net or

Mailed: BLCC PO BOX 520931 Big Lake, Alaska 99652, Attn: Terry Gorlick

NO APPLICATIONS will be considered if received after midnight on this date.

If applications are mailed to the above address, please ensure enough time for delivery by this date. Emailed applications must be received before midnight on June 30, 2023

Approximately July 6-11th, 2023 Grant Committee meets for preliminary review of applications.

July 13th-17th— Applicant presentation(s) to Grant Committee, if needed for additional clarification.

July 25th,2023— BLCC executive meeting: Grant Committee will present to the Board their recommendations and the Board will comment and verify meeting objectives to distribute grant funds to applicants. Only Board members will vote to approve.

August 8th, 2023 BLCC general membership meeting. A spreadsheet and description and amount of individual grants and total grants being approved will be presented as a consent agenda. The membership will vote the grouped grants so that they can be approved in one action, as a whole, rather than as individual grants as they have been previously vetted by the grant committee and the board and some comments by members attending the executive meeting on July 25, 2023.
